

Norman Dunn

2005 Inductee

- Licensed Arabian Judge – appears as 'r' in 1966 USEF Rule Book and as 'R' in 1972; last licensed 1995.

- Information from 1982 AHA Judges' Directory

NORMAN K. DUNN

Born: Denver, Colorado on August 19, 1928

Education: B.S. Degree in Animal Science from Colorado State University; M.S. Degree in Animal Science from Kansas State University

Present Occupation: Professor of Animal Science and Director of Equine Operations for the Kellogg Arabian Horse Center, Cal Poly University, Pomona, California

Horse Club Activities: Chairman and/or member of following I.A.H.A. Committees – U.S. National Show Commission, A.H.S.A. Rules Committee (Arabian Division), Judges Committee and the Drug & Medication Committee; Director and Past President of the Arabian Horse Association of Southern California; Chairman of the California Performance Futurity and Maturity Committee

Horse Interests: Halter, Performance; Owns 15 Arabian Horses