

Matt Kwapich

- Licensed USEF Steward since 1992
- Officiated at all levels of competition in addition to managing championship shows.

Matt started his steward career at Hunter/Jumper competitions and then gravitated to breed shows where he stewarded at all levels, including national championship shows.

Stewarding led Matt to being an integral part of show management teams. He continues to manage national championship competitions across a number of breeds, including being Operations Manager here at our AHA US National Championship Horse Show.
